Dear Sir:

The enclosed letter from my nephew will explain why I am writing you at this time - I don't know what he means by signing another affidavit.
Apparently he should have had the paper by the fourth of May - It is too late now but I would like to have this matter straightened <sup>out</sup> soon
as possible -

I assume the $15.00 I sent you will cover fee for this, if not kindly let me know -

An early answer would be greatly appreciated. Also return of my nephew's letter -

Sincerely yours,
(Miss) Martha Amorth

Dear aunty:

You are probably much surprised why I didn't answer so long your last letter but you see I have a hard time writing a letter in English. That friend of mine who used to write those letters for me don't write them any more. We got angry at each other and don't speak any more and now I haven't got anybody to write even a small letter for me so I have to write one myself.

First of all I want to tell you aunty about my papers. I received notice from the Embassy to report to the Embassy on the 4th of May and bring along a new affidavit and an analysis of my blood and urine. Except for these three things everything else is alright. Now I have to get first of all those medical certificates. Now my departure is dependent only upon you aunty and upon this medical certificate.

Another thing you don't need to fill out another affidavit but just have to go to the bureau and sign the old one and seal it and there in that bureau you have to tell them whether you are bringing me in on the same old conditions or under some new ones. Then they will send your statement to your Embassy in London and your old affidavit will be valid because it has been signed and sealed.

I can't send you those affidavits myself because they are at the Embassy. In any case if you receive any papers at all don't send them to me but send them directly to the Embassy in London.

If you encounter any difficulties please write to me at once that is before the fourth of May so I would know what to do. I am supposed to pay for my visa on the fourth of May and I will do so, but if you can't attend to that affidavit then I won't get no visa and no money. That visa ~~is~~ stays in force for four months after that it becomes outdated. That will be all for now. I greet you and kiss you on both cheeks

Dear Madam:

We received your letter of March 23. We enclose a copy of our letter of Nov. 22, 1949 to Bolesław Majowiec, and also his answer dated Dec. 18, 1949.

Next month we hope there will pass in Washington a new law adding 28,000 veterans of Polish Army in England to a class Displaced Persons, or in short D. P. If Mr. Majowiec is a veteran, he will probably come to the United States this year. If he is not a veteran, he must wait at least two years, for in this case he belongs to the regular Polish quota.

My advice to you, Miss Camovitch, is to write to Mr. Majowiec to be patient and wait. We can break the wall with our heads.

We will watch this situation, and when the proper time comes, we will notify you and Mr. Majowiec.

Yours very truly,

Felix Furtek

My dear Mr. Furtak:-

Just recently I received a letter from my nephew in England. He did not mention your name so I assume you have not written to him as you did to my sister.

My nephew seems to be very impatient and thinks he should be here by now. I know that here things take time and waiting - but he isn't aware of this.

I would like to have you write to him and assure him that I've done all I can do and he has only to wait now.

His present address is:

Hoping to hear from you in the very near future. Love, sincerely yours,

Dear Miss Camovitch:

RE: CASE OF MR. BOLESŁAW MAJOWIEC

After investigating the above-mentioned case, I find that Bolesław Majowiec was registered at the American Consul in London May 14, 1948. I can tell you that at least two years must elapse from the date of registration before anything definite develops in his case.

Apparently, there is nothing that can be done right now..In a few months, we will check his case again and then we will see what his status is at the American Consulate.

Very truly yours,

FF/s
